

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

MATTERS OF INTEREST BRIEFLY
CHRONICLED FOR DEMO-CRAT READERS

THEY COME AND THEY GO

News of Live Oak and Suwannee
County Gathered by the Democrat Reporter

For electric fans, see J. C. Lyle.

W. M. Lee, of Mayo, is in the city today.

N. H. Thomas, of Alton, was here yesterday.

H. P. John, of Wellborn, was here yesterday.

Leslie Burris came up from the Park today.

No. 4 Fay-Sholes Typewriter, a snap at $25.00. R. C. Davis & Company, Jacksonville, Florida. 1t

Ray Kinkaid and wife returned home yesterday.

Job Blackburn was in the city trading today.

J. Buchanan is transacting business in Wellborn today.

W. T. Davis, of Madison, was at the Ethel today.

G. A. Collins, of Perry, is here today on business.

Ed. Hawkins, of Wellborn, is here today on business.

No. 2 Fay-Sholes Typewriter, good condition at $25.00. R. C. Davis & Company, Jacksonville, Florida. 1t

W. F. Dennard, of Dowling Park, was here last evening.

Jack Taylor went to Wilmarth on business this morning.

J. W. Wells, of O'Brien, is in the city today on business.

Geo. W. Livingston, of Newberry, is at the Ethel today.

C. E. Halle, Sr., returned from the Springs this morning.

Judge W. M. Ives, of Lake City, was in the city today.

No. 1 Remington Typewriter, only $25.00. R. C. Davis & Company, Jacksonville, Florida. 1t

The P. C. Wind Co., is located in room No. 7, Lewin building.

G. R. Sumner, of Pinemount, was here yesterday on business.

Mrs. M. A. Lee, of Lake City, was here today, en route to Mayo.

L. T. Bryant and wife, of Luraville, were here yesterday shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Willis, of Sanford, are at the Ethel today.

No. 4 Fay-Sholes Typewriter, excellent in every respect, good as new, $25.00. R. C. Davis & Company, Jacksonville, Florida. 1t

Mrs. M. E. Lee, of Lake City, is here today, a guest of the Ethel.

County Sheriff Livingston, of Alachua, is here on business today.

Mr. Burnett, of Dowling Park, returned from Quincy this morning.

County Sheriff Walker, of Alachua, was here yesterday, conveying a prisoner to Chattahoochee.

Mr. R. C. Meeks left this morning for Suwannee Springs on a visit to her mother, J. E. Meeks.

The McCullers Bros. have received material and will resume work on their new block Monday.

Mrs. Jack Leak, of Lafayette, was here visiting several days, returned home last evening.

No. 2, Smith Premier Typewriter, big bargain for quick buyer, $50.00. R. C. Davis & Company, Jacksonville, Florida. 1t

Mrs. R. H. Holmes and sons, Joe and Herschel, went to White Springs this morning to spend a week.

Rev. W. L. Everett went to Long Branch to assist Rev. W. A. Tison in a revival meeting for about ten days.

R. O. Meeks, who has been visiting here, returned to Lake City yesterday.

Mrs. M. J. Dickert was here from Porter's yesterday on a visit to relatives.

No. 6 Fay-Sholes Typewriter, used only sixty days, big bargain; price furnished upon application. R. C. Davis & Company, Jacksonville, Florida. 1t

A. Wilson and Miss Emma Wilson, of Macedonia, were in the city shopping today.

Mrs. Col. Harrell went to Fort White today on a visit to her husband's parents.

Mrs. J. H. Braswell went to White Springs today to see her husband who is sick there.

No. 2 Remington Typewriter, fair condition, $25.00. "Nuf Sed." R. C. Davis & Company, Jacksonville, Florida. 1t

Representative Geiger, of Mayo, was here yesterday, on his way to Columbia, S. C.

Mrs. Lazarus, who has been very low with fever, is much better today, we are glad to note.

Best Carbon Paper, all size and colors, only $1.65 per box. R. C. Davis & Company, Jacksonville, Florida. 1t

Silk Typewriter Ribbons, for all machines. R. C. Davis & Co., Jacksonville, Florida. 1t

Mrs. P. S. Michael was here today en route to her home at Suwannee from a visit to Lake City.

J. M., S. J., E. R., and H. B. Brown, of the Rocky Sink section, were trading in the city today.

Mrs. S. S. Stapleton, of Suwannee Station, was here shopping this morning.

J. A. Deberry, of route No. 3, was a visitor in the city this morning, and called at the Democrat office.

Mrs. Lena Pert, of Dowling Park, returned from Madison this morning, where she has been visiting a week.

O. H. Thompson and family, of Mayo, are here on a visit to R. G. Thompson's family.

Karl Bardin and Charley Blackburn rode over to the Springs last night.

Fred Hugger and Pete Bardin spent a pleasant evening at Suwannee Springs yesterday.

W. B. Williams, of Madison, is here on a visit to Henry Platt's family.

Mrs. O. B. Harrell went to Lake City last evening on a visit to her parents.

Mrs. J. L. Gray, of Jacksonville, who has been visiting here, returned home yesterday.

W. D. Whatley, of Rocky Sink, was here today trading.

F. P. Burnett, of Luraville, was here yesterday on business.

Rev. T. M. Webb, of Lafayette, was in the city yesterday.

A. J. and W. M. Ross, of Rossburg, were in the city today.

Hugh Wilson, of Lake City, was here today on business.

Mrs. M. I. Robertson, of Madison was here today en route to Georgia.

N. A. Gaylard and wife, of Wellborn, were in the city today trading.

Miss Eula Wilson, of Lake City, who has been the charming guest of Miss Annie Wilson, returned home yesterday.

F. R. Stroud and wife, who have been to Ellaville on a visit to his parents, returned to their home at Dowling Park this morning.

Good one horse dray outfit, with reliable white driver want steady employment on salary. Apply at Democrat office.

Mrs. S. A. Attaway, of Alton, was here today, on her way home from Wellborn, where she has been visiting.

Miss Edna Johnson, of Fort Myers, a nurse, was here today on her way home from conveying a patient to the asylum.

Mrs. T. H. Meeks returned from Madison yesterday, where she has been on a visit to relatives and friends.

Mrs. S. L. Bailey went to Madison today on a visit to friends and relatives, and will also visit Valdosta during her absence.

E. C. Horne, who has been looking after his business interests at Peacock, was here yesterday on his return home to Jasper.

Conductor McKinnon left yesterday to visit the Jamestown exposition. During his absence Mr. Long will take his run.

Sheriff F. B. Tipples, of Fort Myers, was here today, en route home from Chattahoochee, where he conveyed an insane woman.

Mrs. E. J. Blume and little Irene, went to Tampa and other points in South Florida on a visit to relatives and friends this morning.

L. L. Bailey, of the Pine Grove settlement, was here today. Madison Bailey, of the same section, was also here.

No. 7, Remington Typewriter, used only three months, big bargain at $75.00. R. C. Davis & Company, Jacksonville, Florida. 1t

S. Wheeler, of Columbia, was here last night, returning home from Quincy and was the guest of Charley Walker while in the city.

Mrs. Lee Byrd and little daughter went to Monteagle, Tennessee, yesterday, to be absent a month and will attend the Monteagle assembly.

S. T. Prescott, father of Mrs. Dr. Caswell, is reported to be lying at the point of death at his home in Alachua. Mrs. Caswell is at his bedside.

The Telephone Company is engaged in putting their wires in cables in the business portion of the city, which is a marked improvement over the old system.

Miss Kathleen Thomas, who has been the guest of Miss Eva Dowling, and also of Miss Rosalie Lewin, returned to her home in Madison today, accompanied by Miss Lewin. Miss Thomas, who is an extremely fascinating young lady, has made many admiring friends in Live Oak, who regret her departure.

Refrigerators, Coolers, Ice
Boxes

Mosquito Bars and all Summer Goods

GOING AT COST.

Prices are very interesting.
Come let us show you

J. B. BARTON & CO.
H. L. CAMPBELL, MANAGER

FOR SALE

City and Suburban Properties

Fire Life and Accident INSURANCE in Old Reliable Companies

Prompt attention given to ALL BUSINESS

EDWARDS REALTY CO.
Lewin Building, Room 3.
Phone No. 44.

FLORIDA BOOK & NEWS CO.

Dealers in BOOKS BIBLES, BLANK BOOKS STATIONERY

Musical Instruments And all Attachments

Picture Frames made to order.

Florida Book & News Co.
C. C. COOK Manager and Owner

J. E. Pound and his sweet little daughter, Mary Hampton, came up from Perry today. Editor Pound makes his visits too short when he comes to Live Oak.

Quincy McCoy, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Giles, arrived here this morning from Madison, accompanied by his wife and are guests of Mr. Giles' family.

The ordinance of baptism will be administered at the Baptist church tomorrow night at the close of the service. Brother Ridley limits his night service to one hour.

Miss Hazel Hough, one of the bright stars of DeLand's younger social set, who has been the charming guest of Miss Loyselle Brown, returned home this morning.

"Justification by Faith" will be the subject of Rev. C. A. Ridley at the Baptist church tomorrow, both morning and night. Everybody is cordially invited and will be made feel at home.

Miss Nannie May Creech, of Quitman, is a guest of Miss Lucy Hopson. Miss Creech has visited here before, and has hosts of admiring friends in Live Oak who are glad to greet her again.

Mrs. M. H. Hurst is reported very low, with only slight chances of recovery. Her husband is also ill, and the family is reported to be in straitened circumstances. Here is a chance for our people to show their charity.

R. H. Haddock and wife, Misses Annie and Fannie Savage, Vivian Evans, Vernie Bryan and Verdie Haddock went to Suwannee Springs today in a wagon to spend the day in picnic fashion. That they had a delightful time goes without saying.

PROSPECTIVE WATCH BUYERS

If you wish for exclusive elegance in a watch with absolute accuracy of movement, your idea of perfection will meet a revelation in

THE HOWARD WATCH

Let us "show" you why

All Standard Makes for Sale by

RADFORD
The Jeweler
LIVE OAK, FLA.

Miss Mamie Sterkie, an attractive young lady of Dade City, is one of the new students at the Southern Business College. Miss Sterkie chose the Southern out of several different business colleges within reach. She will take the complete stenography course.

Jack Currie, Miss Carmita Grubb and Miss Mary Grubb, Billie Moreland, Mrs. Syd. Conner, Jr., and Miss Annie Grubb, Joe Hinely and Miss Sallie Taylor went to the Springs last night. They had delicious refreshments at the pool and had a delightful time.

Mr. S. J. Giles, postmaster at Carrabelle, and his brother, Mr. W. W. Giles, were among the visitors by automobile to Suwannee Springs yesterday.